I listen to KLOVE on 88.1fm in Omaha NE. We have only 1 other Christian radio station available to us in this area and I listen to this station exclusively. If we were to loose KLOVE station I feel our community would lose a very good radio station with nothing to replace it. KLOVE gives our community here in Omaha local updates with community events, and concerts, ect. So that the Christian community knows what is going on in our area.